

Safety Survey To Be Conducted by 4-H Club Boys

Next week during National Farm Safety Week, July 20-26, Randall County 4-H club boys will assume the role of farm safety inspectors. Their aim will be to eliminate a few of the many hazards which are found on every farm and ranch.

These boys know that if this is an average year one out of every 19 farm residents will suffer a disabling injury. One out of every six farms in the nation will be the scene of an accidental injury.

In their roles of safety inspectors the 4-H club boys will make a safety survey of their farm and home. When they find a hazard they will pin a sign there and then list the hazards on paper. The sign will serve as a warning until the hazard is corrected.

Club members will then submit their lists to the county agent. A county total will be made after all farms are surveyed. Each boy will set a goal of removing 52 hazards in 1952.

Each safety worker in Texas knows that safety must be practiced every day of the year. Power equipment, combustible fuels, electrical power, dangerous animals and many practices of modern farming and ranching have placed tremendously new sources of power at the disposal of modern farmers.

Agricultural accidents have risen sharply as new farming methods take over. Today farming and ranching are among the top three most hazardous occupations. The work of the 4-H club boys in connection with the safety campaign is to make everyone aware of the danger of carelessness.

They are taking the lead. As they gain experience they may serve as safety inspectors for all Randall County.

Dr. Jack Walker To Represent President Cornette at Fort Sill

Dr. Jack Walker, public services committee chairman, will represent President James P. Cornette and West Texas State College Thursday and Friday at a Reserve Officers' Training Corps summer camp at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Presidents of colleges and universities where ROTC units are located annually are invited to observe training and camp activities at the military posts for particular branches. The camp at Fort Sill is for ROTC artillery students. Major Richard E. Brown, sponsoring professor of military science and tactics at West Texas State, will accompany Dr. Walker, who will report to Dr. Cornette on training required of advanced ROTC students at camp.

The summer camp is presently required of all advanced ROTC students between their junior and senior years at college. No camp has yet been designated for students in the new "Branch General" units, one of which will begin operation in September at West Texas State.

Covington Named to Naval Training

J. D. Covington, Borger, former Buffalo football player at West Texas State College, has been selected for the June Class of the United States Navy Officer Candidates School, Newport, R. I.

Covington played guard on the WT championship team in 1950, and was named All-Conference Guard that year. A four-year letterman, he was a regular for two years. Since his graduation in 1951, he coached at Borger Junior High School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Covington.

City Uses Spray To Fight Insects

The City of Canyon has been making an attempt to spray the alleys once a week this summer when the weather has permitted. No permanent record has been kept on the number of times the city truck has sprayed the alleys but so far as officials can remember only one week was missed. This was a week when the wind was so high that the spray would be more irritating to citizens than deadly to insects.

Purpose of the weekly spraying jobs by the City is to rid alleys of disease carrying insects. The solution with which the alleys are being sprayed was described as being absolutely harmless to human beings as well as animals. At first the spray had an offensive odor but more recently the people who are doing the spraying have added pine oil to the solution to make the odor less offensive.

City Secretary Dudley Bayne said the spraying jobs were not a direct measure for prevention of polio. It is a sanitary measure to kill such disease carrying insects as flies and mosquitoes.

Deadline Near For Inspection Of All Autos

With the deadline for motor vehicle inspection less than two months away the Canyon trade area still has approximately 1,223 motor vehicles left to inspect. The inspection law has caused considerable dissension throughout the state. Originally the law was supposed to have been complied with before the motor vehicle could be registered. Public feeling ran so high against the law that the deadline was extended until September 6.

Recently a survey was made of all the motor vehicles in the Canyon trade area. This survey showed a total of 2,100 cars and trucks registered here that required inspection. The spokesman said that out of this number only 877 had been inspected as of the end of last week.

It was also pointed out that this area has only three inspection stations. This means that the stations will have to inspect almost 60 cars each per week until the deadline if all of the inspections are to be made. Many believe that a last minute rush will develop and that some of the vehicles will not be inspected by midnight, Sept. 6.

Weekend Roundup Of Drunk Drivers Is Reported by Officers

Sheriff M. E. Cantrell's department had a busy week end that resulted in eight men being jailed. The week end was described as a roundup of drunk drivers.

Some of the cars involved contained large quantities of beer. One car contained part of a case of beer which was iced down and a full case that was not iced. According to the deputy's report two girls who were described as minors were in the car. At least one of the girls was said to have been drinking to the point of intoxication.

One arrestee was reported to have sideswiped a car between Canyon and Happy. He attempted to flee the scene but was caught by the driver of the vehicle he had hit. A struggle was said to have ensued but officers arrived in time to make the arrest.

Ben Guill May Oppose Rogers For Congress

A radio commentator announced in Chicago during the GOP convention that Ben Guill had announced he would run for Congress if General Eisenhower received the GOP nomination.

Guill has denied that he made any such statement; that if he decides to run he will make an announcement in his home town of Pampa, instead of in Chicago.

Guill was elected to Congress in the special election and served for seven months as a Republican. He was defeated by Congressman Walter Rogers, Democrat, who has a strong record of opposition to the waste and corruption of the Truman administration.

Tractor Display at Canyon Implement All Day Saturday

Free coffee and doughnuts will be served at the Canyon Implement Company Saturday, July 19. Registration for door prizes will also be conducted.

The occasion is two new heavy duty tractors which will be added to the present stock of the company. According to the company these new tractors feature a host of engineering advancements and major improvements.

At least one of the new models is to be placed on display for the public Saturday. The company extends an invitation to the entire public to inspect this new tractor.

C-C Industrial Survey Is Now Being Planned

Chamber of Commerce Manager Glenn Waggoner is working to bring an industry to Canyon. Plans and arrangements are somewhat incomplete at this time.

Waggoner recently attended a Panhandle Industrial Survey conducted in Dumas. This was a meeting which was attended by Panhandle Chamber of Commerce managers.

Main purpose of the meeting was to make an industrial survey. The survey was to convey the entire 32 county Panhandle area. The way it was to work was with each county making up a survey to be combined later in a report. This report can be used by the various Chamber of Commerce managers in the Panhandle area when quick information is needed about the prospect of locating an industry.

Whether the town wants an industry now or later or never does not matter in getting the survey completed. The final report which results from the survey will be an important document to have around. It will contain vital information about the High Plains area and this is information that every town and city in the area should have, Waggoner pointed out.

WT Band Entertains Canyon Lions Club

Last Wednesday the Lions Club continued its new program to help its members get better acquainted. This new method is a series of talks by each Lion. Each one of the members gives the club a brief description of his life and activities and no advance warning is given as to which meeting they will be called upon to talk. Bud Hickman was the Lion who followed the Lion Boss in telling of his life.

The Lions enjoyed a short musical program last week by the West Texas State College Band under the direction of Clyde Swatell. Several numbers were played by the band during the luncheon of which the most significant was the "Military Escort" march. This selection was given in three different arrangements in order to show the various techniques in which music could be given.

The Lions discussed having a joint meeting with the Rotary Club the following day to hear Senator Hazlewood.

Two guests were present at the luncheon. They were Jim McFerrin of Amarillo and Kenny Lane of Pampa.

ATTENDING HARDWARE MEET

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Thompson left last week for Washington, D. C. to attend a Hardware Convention. The Thompsons also plan to visit New York and on their return trip will stop in Greenville, North Carolina, to visit Mrs. Thompson's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Lowes and daughter left Sunday for a vacation trip to Colorado.

ROTC Offers Advantages to WT Students

If you're draft age and plan to start college this fall, you'll find it to your advantage to consider Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC), and particularly the new unit at West Texas State College.

You may get yourself a draft deferment during your four years at college, may earn your degree as well as a commission when you finish. At West Texas State, where the new "Branch General" will be in operation this fall, all young men take the first two years of ROTC, and then may elect the advanced training program for the final two years if they desire.

At West Texas, the training is a general program, and those men taking the advanced or senior ROTC training may choose their own branch of the service from among the 16 different divisions of the Army. The selection is made in the senior year, and the candidate takes a three-month course in one of the Army's special service schools after graduation from WT. If a commission is accepted, the candidate serves two years of active duty, if needed, and serves six years in the reserves after active duty.

To qualify for ROTC training at West Texas State, the student must be accepted by the college, maintain acceptable grades, be able to pass the standard Army physical examination, and not less than 14 years of age and not more than 23 years of age when he enrolls.

The advanced ROTC student will be paid a regular monthly salary, in addition to receiving his uniforms and textbooks free. Freshmen and sophomores receive the uniforms and books, but no salary.

Veterans with service during the last five years, and young men who have had high school or junior college ROTC, will receive credit for that training at West Texas State College. All told, the advantages offered here at West Texas State College in ROTC are worth investigating.

Local Woman Is Contest Winner

Mrs. William T. Green of 400 Tenth Street was recently named as one of the 100 first prize winners in a radio contest. It was a "name game" contest sponsored by the Lever Brothers Company. The contest was conducted by Arthur Godfrey in connection with Kinsol soap. Mrs. Green will receive a half-carat diamond ring.

Prizes totaling $110,000 were awarded nationally. The winners named characters from Walt Disney's motion picture "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." In addition to this they created names for the famous "Rinso Bird."

Basket Dinner at Singing Sunday

The Randall County All Day Singing will be held at Fairview Sunday, July 20.

A large group of singers is expected, with a cordial invitation to all. There will be a basket lunch at noon.

Few Absentee Ballots Cast in Demo Primary

County Clerk Tommy Lair said last week that absentee voting for the July 26 Democratic Primary would be observed through Tuesday, July 22. He pointed out that those people who have a poll tax receipt should bring it along in order to save time and trouble in voting.

Absentee ballots can be cast in Canyon at the office of the County Clerk and in South Amarillo at the Randall County Justice of the Peace office at 204 West 34th Street. A duly appointed deputy will be present at that office from 11 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the evening until absentee voting ends on July 22.

If an absentee ballot is to be mailed, a written request for the ballot must be made at the office of the County Clerk.

The County Clerk continued that the casting of absentee votes was moving rather slowly. Late Thursday afternoon only 22 absentee votes had been cast through the County Clerk's office here.

Rain at Last! Canyon Got 1.10 Inches Moisture

Rain fell at last in the Canyon area. 1.10 inches fell here Tuesday night, accompanied by a heavy electrical storm.

This is the first moisture received in Canyon since June 28, when .83 of an inch fell.

The total moisture up to the end of June for 1952 measured 6.93 inches, which is far below the normal moisture for the first six months of the year.

Women Visitors Invited to See Children Swim

Women visitors, especially mothers, are cordially invited to visit the college pool during week days between the hour of 9:30 and 10:30 in the morning. At this time one of the recreation swimming classes for youngsters is in progress.

At least two swimming classes a day and several other activities are being carried on by the recreation program. Baseball teams were organized and games were played between 6 and 8 o'clock in the evening.

Coach Floyd Murry has been the director of recreation this summer. Last year the town had a full time man for this job but when the Community Recreation Council ceased operation it left this work entirely in the hands of volunteer workers.

There has been a sufficient number of volunteer workers to keep the recreation program going and the youngsters who were free of school for the summer vacation have been able to enjoy this vacation more.

Local Courts Have Busy Day Monday

The county attorney reported a busy Monday as a result of the eight arrests made over the week end. Five charges of driving while intoxicated were filed in Judge Burney Slack's County Court early Monday morning.

All five of the men entered a plea of guilty and the penalties for their offenses were handed down by Judge Slack. Three of the penalties assessed were fines of $100 plus court cost which totaled $126.50 for each offense. The other two cases, which appeared to have more serious backgrounds surrounding them, were $150 each plus court cost. These two fines totaled $176.50 each.

Five cases were also tried in the Justice of the Peace Court before B. F. Machen. Two drunk charges drew fines of $14 each. A $50 fine was handed down on one drunk charge. Two fines of $14 each were given in connection with charges of operating a motor vehicle without a license.

Marchant will complete his tour of the Dallas firm July 18, where he is a participating fellow in the Insurance Teachers' Summer Visitation Program. He has been observing the operation of each division in the company.

At the University of Pennsylvania this fall, Marchant will study under a grant by the S. S. Huebner Foundation for Insurance Education.

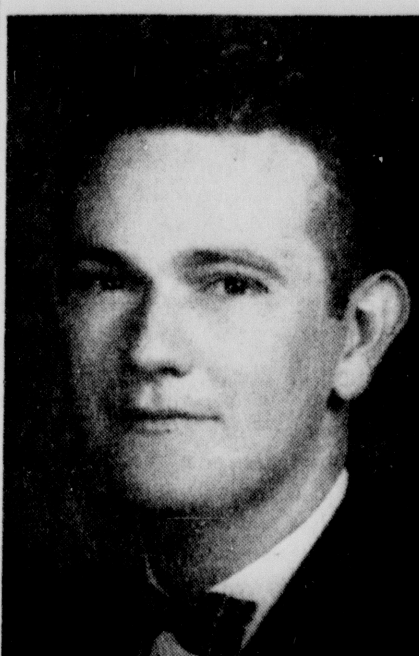

Happy Woman Is Injured in Crash

A blown out tire was given as the cause of a crash in which Mrs. Lloyd Whitman of Happy suffered a broken wrist and collar bone Saturday afternoon about 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Whitman was said to be seriously hurt but not in critical condition, according to hospital attendants. It was reported that the car she was driving went out of control when the mishap occurred.

The accident occurred about six miles south of Happy on Highway 87. Mrs. Whitman was returning from a visit to Hobbs, New Mexico. After the accident she was taken to Amarillo Osteopathic Hospital & Clinic where she received emergency treatment for her injuries.

Mrs. Dick Ziegler, Mrs. J. R. Barrett and Mrs. Cynthia Anderson visited in Portales, N. M., last Friday in the home of Mrs. Anderson's sister, Mrs. Laura Buckner.

The new director of the Methodist Student Center of West Texas State College is Rev. Jim T. Pickens, who was assigned to this work by the recent Methodist Conference. In addition to his work at the Methodist Center, Rev. Pickens will be the pastor of the Methodist Church at Wildorado. He is a graduate of SMU.

Hitchhikers Steal Car Near Amarillo

County and state officials were on the look out early this week for a stolen car and the two men who took the car from the owner at the point of a gun. The car was taken from Leland J. Allen of Panhandle.

The report said that Allen was coming to Canyon when he picked up two men a short distance south of Amarillo. A short distance north of Canyon one of the men pulled a gun and told Allen to drive as directed. Allen told officials.

After driving around on country roads and discussing what to do with Allen the two men were said to drive into a service station at Hale Center for gasoline. Here, Allen said that he leaped from the car and reported the theft to a deputy sheriff. The deputy brought him to Tulia where the state highway patrol was contacted. They brought Allen on to Canyon and county officials took him home to Panhandle.

Officials are still seeking the car which is a dark blue four door Chevrolet. The car is a 1951 model and the license number is AV5530.

Candidates To Speak in Canyon Friday Night

Friday night is candidate night in Canyon.

A loud speaker will be furnished for the occasion by Charles Donnell. Clyde Warwick will preside at the meeting.

All voters of Randall county are urged to come to the bandstand at 8 o'clock and listen to the candidates as they speak regarding their individual records and present their claims for election in the July primary.

There will be no charge for participating in this candidate rally.

A member of Kappa Kappa Psi, honorary band fraternity, Coleman sang a tenor role in the WT Opera Workshop's production of "H. M. S. Pinafore," and was a member of the college band. He will be band and choir director at Texhoma, Oklahoma, High School this fall.

County Starts Work Of Equalization

The Commissioners Court started its annual work of equalizing tax renditions for 1952 taxes at the session Monday after the regular work of the month had been completed.

Equalization continued Tuesday and much of the work had been completed.

Friday Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Holabaugh flew with Mr. and Mrs. Thornton G. Dewey to Plainview and returned via the Loyd Whitman ranch near Happy to visit with Mrs. Whitman who is bedfast following an auto accident.

Survey Proves Wheat Acreage Above Estimate

Wheat acreage and production reports coming into the County P. M. A. office indicate a total wheat yield for Randall county quite a bit above what was expected before harvest began.

Reports from the first 200 farms from all parts of the county on which were seeded a little over 50,000 acres, the production reports indicate an average yield of 11 bushels per harvested acre.

The 200 farms, for which reports were tabulated, harvested almost exactly two-thirds of the acres seeded. If this trend holds true for the county the final figures will show about 135,000 acres harvested for a total yield of about 1,500,000 bushels. It had been estimated that as much as 50% of the seeded acreage would be abandoned before harvest, however, it now looks as if only one-third was actually abandoned.

It is estimated from reports already in that the average production from all the acreage seeded will be about 7 1/2 bushels per acre.

There were a little over 200,000 acres seeded to wheat last fall.

Spanish Boys and Negroes Here to Work in Harvest

There were about 50 Spanish boys and Negroes in Canyon Saturday buying groceries. Their boss was here yesterday on another shopping trip.

The boys are from Bryan and are under contract to perform a lot of farm work in the Tulia and Happy communities.

The boss returned to Bryan over the week end and will move his crew back to that section after the end of this week. He has four big trucks in which the boys move. All of them are citizens of Bryan.

The boss was advised to come to Canyon to do his grocery shopping in order to save money. He operates a grocery business in Bryan and was pleased with the service that he received in Canyon and the prices which were quoted him.

Sheriff Has Two Large Rings of Mystery Keys

Two key rings, each containing a large number of keys, is at present being kept by Sheriff M. E. Cantrell. The keys were recently removed from a young man who was picked up on a burglary charge. The young man explained that most of the keys had been found but that some of them had been given to him.

It has been learned that some of the keys are to various locks in business establishments about town. Several of them are for coke machines while others appear to be door keys, cash register keys and perhaps even business files.

Deputy Sheriff L. G. Pounds said that anyone who has lost keys during the past six months might find them at the Sheriff's office. Authorities are hopeful that in learning where the keys came from they can also clear up some more burglaries in this vicinity.

Dedication Set For CROP Wheat

Saturday afternoon, July 26, at 3 o'clock there will be a dedication service for the carload of wheat given by the citizens of Randall County for the Christian Rural Overseas Program.

The service will start at 3 o'clock at the bandstand on the square. The final portion of the program will take place at the railroad tracks.

All residents of Randall County are encouraged to be present for this significant service.

The goal for the drive was two carloads of wheat and field workers are still out in an attempt to get the remainder of the quota.

The Canyon News Presents State Candidates to the Voters in '52

The Canyon News does not profess to "know it all" when it comes to candidates for state offices, or to be the mouthpiece of the voters of Randall County. However, since there are so many voters who look with favor upon our analysis of candidates, we are giving you a brief review of each candidate for state office in hope that it will be of some assistance in guiding the voters in the selection of the candidates for whom they will vote on July 26.

There is no question about the Governor's race. Governor Allan Shivers will be re-elected in the first primary in spite of all the mud that Ralph Yarborough is slinging in this race. The people of Texas resent such tactics. Shivers has done a good job of his office, and will make a stronger Governor because of his past experience. Don't let Yarborough fool you about the time Shivers has served. Shivers is running for his SECOND TERM. He served out the unexpired term of the late Governor Jester. There is no sense in arguing that Shivers should retire simply because Yarborough wants to be governor. Mrs. Allene M. Traylor, the third candidate, will get a few hundred scattered voters.

Ben Ramsey will be re-elected Lieutenant Governor over Frank Morales. Ramsey made little effort to win his job two years ago. He is opposed by many legislators who have been miffed because of his rulings as Lieutenant Governor, but no one agrees that his unknown opponent has a chance to defeat him.

Price Daniel will receive at least 65% of the total vote cast on July 26 over the state. In the Panhandle Price Daniel will win by a vote of practically 85% over both E. W. Napier of Wichita County and Lindley Beckworth of Upshur County. Napier is too old to be of service to the State. Beckworth is running a losing race against the aggressive and intelligent Attorney General.

John C. White of Wichita county has two opponents in his race for a second term for Commissioner of Agriculture; Billy Beard and Walter McKay. We bet on White because of his aggressive race two years ago in defeating the veteran J. C. McDonald.

Bascom Giles will win over his one opponent, Guy Patterson, for the office of Land Commissioner. While Giles feels his importance and has messed up the tidelands fight by his "know-it-all" attitude, he will win.

Olin Culberson will be re-elected as member of the Railroad Commission. Culberson wants to be governor, but his heart has kept him out of the race. Teamed up with General E. O. Thompson and Bill Murray he has run the affairs of the Railroad Commission very acceptably.

We are leaving the posts on the Court of Criminal Appeals and the Supreme Court open for the lawyers to fill.

Jesse Owens of Wilbarger County and Kenneth K. Woodley are candidates for the Court of Criminal Appeals. This court has been loaded down with mechanical ties until it is difficult to convict any man of crime. Perhaps the new judge will be better than the old one, since the present judge on the bench is retiring.

There are four candidates for Place 1 on the Supreme Court: Frank P. Culver of Tarrant Co.; A. R. Stout of Ellis Co.; Spurgeon Bell of Harris Co.; Glenn R. Lewis of Tom Green Co.

For Place 2 on the Supreme Court the candidates are Robert Bruce Keenan of Gregg Co. and Graham B. Smedley of Tarrant Co.

Candidates for Places 3 and 4 on the Supreme Court are unopposed.

This brings us down to the most hotly contested race on the official ballot, seven candidates for the office of Congressman-at-Large. As we have stated several times, we are for John Lee Smith of Lubbock in this race. He is the only West Texan in this race, and West Texas is entitled to at least two new Congressmen when the legislature gets around to re-district the State. As we pointed out in the editorial of last week, Petry of Dimmitt county is right down on the Mexican border; Dickson is from San Antonio; Hamburger is from Harris county, almost on the Gulf of Mexico; Nimitz is from Orange county in the Southeast tip of the State; Dies is from Angelina county, right on the Louisiana border; with Selman just west of Dies.

What can any one expect of a Congressman living 700 or 800 miles away from the Panhandle? The term will be for only two years, so why not stay at home with our vote and support our neighbor and friend from the South Plains, John Lee Smith. If any of the other candidates were more honorable or capable men than John Lee Smith, there might be some excuse for voting for one of them. We hope that every Randall county vote will be cast for Smith.

Robert S. Calvert, Comptroller, and Jesse James, State Treasurer, are unopposed.

We shall support John Ben Sheppard of Gregg County for Attorney General. His opponent is Curt Stiles of Dallas county. Sheppard is a good man and will make a vigorous public official.

Walter Rogers of Gray county is unopposed for Congress from the 18th District.

There are four candidates for the office of Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals, 7th District: Hal Houston of Randall county, who practices law in Amarillo; Harry Bunnenberg of Wilbarger county; Joe S. Moss of Garza County; Ernest O. Northcutt of Potter county. All of the candidates have been in Canyon during the campaign, and are known to many Canyon people. This is another office for which the lawyers are taking considerable interest. You take your own choice.

This brings us down to the office of State Senator. Our neighbor and friend, Grady Hazlewood, is seeking re-election. His opponent is Jim Crow of Canadian. Since Grady is a man of wide experience in this office, and has such a fine record we would be very ungrateful to even suggest that any Randall county voter should vote for his opponent. Mr. Crow is a very likable young man and probably will be in future campaigns, but so far Grady Hazlewood is the leader in the race.

Bill Andis, State Representative; and H. C. Pipkin, District Attorney, are both unopposed.

This brings us down to county and precinct candidates. You have met and know these candidates. Take your choice, and may the best candidate win!

Which brings us down to another election problem—that of casting your ballot. You will note that at the top of the ballot is printed a provision that you may vote the old way of marking out the names of the candidates which you do not wish to support; and at the same time you MAY vote the new way of placing a cross in the box in front of the candidate of your choice. The latter method is faster and less confusing. We hope that all Randall county voters will vote by this method.

Go to the polls early on election day and give the election judges a chance to get the ballots counted Saturday night. If you wait until the last minute to vote you will only delay counting the ballots.

Study the ballot which is printed in this issue of The Canyon News and then go to the polls and cast an intelligent ballot for the persons whom you believe will make the best public official. Usually it is pretty hard to overlook friendships and vote for efficiency, but this is the year when honesty and efficiency will count for the most.

Talk; Talk; Talk; Talk Will Be Plentiful at Democratic Conflab

"What will the Democrats talk about when the National Convention is held?" asked an interested voter.

Don't worry. There is always plenty to talk about when you begin to search the record.

There is always the Hoover administration. Regardless of the fact that Hoover had nothing to do about the depression which followed the wild spending spree of his administration, he will always be blamed by the Democrats for this condition.

Then there are the mistakes of the 80th Congress, controlled by the Republicans during the Truman administration. There were plenty of mistakes made during those two fateful years.

And naturally there are those hectic days during the present convention and just preceding this convention when Republicans were calling each other liars and thieves, and all kinds of bitter names. Possibly they have proved their assertions. At least the Democrats will use the language which the GOPers have hurled at each other. There were many tense moments when it looked as if the convention was going to break up in a fist fight. However, the advanced pledge of all candidates to support the nominee of the convention smoothed a lot of the pathway.

We will have plenty to talk about when the Democrats meet.

Old Guard of GOP Throws in The Sponge; Honesty Prevails

Probably you listened to the proceedings of the Republican National Convention in Chicago. There were very few persons in this vicinity who did not listen.

Two major things seem to stand out in this convention, which will be reflected in the Democratic National Convention.

1. A change from the Old Guard.
2. The plea for honesty on the part of public officials.

The Old Guard, controlled by Senator Taft was whipped by the combined efforts of delegates who supported minority candidates. Taft started out to rule with an iron hand. The young group of Republicans refused to take orders from the Old Guard, and voted with a younger generation who will take over. That is a good sign. Perhaps the youth of the land will be as arbitrary as the Old Guard, once they are firmly entrenched, but for the present they are running the show. The same thing will probably be true in the Democratic camp.

The plea for honesty on the part of public officials was a most timely position. There can be no denying that this is the weakest link in the Truman administration. Truman has upheld the acts of his subordinates and has refused to clean up the mess which they are making.

Sam Rayburn, et al, Willing to Fight for the Democratic Party

Candidates for the Democratic nomination are becoming as thick as fleas on the back of the proverbial dog.

Here comes Sam Rayburn who says that he is available. Sam has an opponent down at Bonham, and possibly his announcement will help him win.

A few days ago Veep Barkley announced that he was a candidate. He is 74 years old.

There are a large number of minor candidates. The man who has made the longest campaign is Senator Kefauver. When the convention is held in Chicago they will probably pull the same gag on him as was pulled on Taft—"Harry was also a Senator."

We have plenty of candidates in the making, which is a better situation than the one confronting the Republicans with only two strong candidates who fought for the nomination.

Vote on July 26—Voting Is a Privilege and an Obligation

The greatest privilege which is presented to the citizens of America is their right to vote. In nations outside of America men fight and die for the right to vote.

In America we fail to take advantage of this privilege and obligation. In dictator nations they shoot the fellow who refuses or fails to vote.

It is distressing that so many citizens fail to go to the polls and take advantage of their opportunities of having a voice in our government.

Vote on July 26. You will feel better about your government if you have a voice in the operations of your government. After all, if YOU fail in your obligations, who will do the job for you?

Somebody ought to invent a dry-cleaning process for some jokes and some joke-tellers.

When an editor thinks his views are important, he usually thinks they are very important.

IN CASE OF ACCIDENT

The overnight millionaire wanted the best of everything. He went into a music shop and asked to see their most expensive violin for his son. The assistant brought out a beautiful Stradivarius, saying: "This is a 1730 Strad, priced at $100,000."

The millionaire hesitated a moment, then remarked: "You say it was made in 1730 and that it costs $100,000?"

"That's right."

"But tell me, is the company that made this fiddle still in business?"

"Of course not," exclaimed the assistant in shocked tones.

"Then it's no good," said the rich man, definitely. "What would I do for spare parts?"

HOW IT STARTED

Back in 1870 at Montrose, New York, the New York Central installed the first device which enabled locomotives to pick up water without stopping. Railroad men referred to this process as "jerk-water" and Montrose became known in railroad lingo as a "jerk-water" town.

As more devices were installed along the line, the term "jerk-water" was used in a disdainful sense to describe places which were important only for the water picked up there.

HARD OF HEARING

The rector was visiting one of his parishioners, an elderly lady afflicted with deafness. She expressed her regret at not being able to hear his sermons.

Desiring to be sympathetic and to say something consoling, he replied, "You don't miss much."

"So they tell me," was the disconcerting reply.

TRUTH CURES EVERYTHING

"Your wife used to be terribly nervous. Now she is cool and composed as a cucumber. What cured her?"

"The doctor did. He told her that her kind of nervousness was the natural result of advancing age."

DOUBLE TALK

A proud parent called up the newspaper and reported the birth of twins. The girl at the news desk didn't quite catch the message over the phone. "Will you repeat that?" she asked.

"Not if I can help it," was the reply.

LIVE DISPOSAL UNIT

The fancy questionnaire a household appliance company used to survey Iowa housewives brought equally fancy replies. To the question, "What make of garbage disposal unit do you use?" one woman wrote: "Four hogs."

KNOWS EVERYTHING

Groom: "Now perhaps I'll be permitted to point out a few of your defects."

Bride: "It won't be necessary, darling. I know them. They kept me from getting a better man than you."

Disraeli's nickname was "Dizzy."

HEAT 101, SUFFERS FROSTBITE

Washington, D. C. — While hundreds of people were treated for heat exhaustion, Mrs. S. A. Carr, of nearby Rockville, Md., was treated for frostbite. Mrs. Carr opened her refrigerator to get some ice and her hand stuck to the ice tray. She couldn't get her hand released, so she pulled out the ice tray and waited for it to thaw enough to release her frozen hand. Then she went to a doctor's office to be treated for frostbite.

USE RIGHT WORDS

There is a great difference between the right word and the word that is almost right. For instance, you call a woman a kitten, but not a cat; a mouse, but not a rat; a chicken, but not a hen; a duck, not a goose; a vision, but not a sight.

Applause is the spur of noble minds; the end and aim of weak ones. —Colton.

Fine and Jail Sentence Given Drunk Driver

A fine of $150 and court costs plus six months in jail was handed down in County Court last week in connection with a charge of driving while intoxicated. The penalty was given the driver of the car involved in the crash shortly before midnight on July 3.

The crash occurred a short distance south of the Amarillo city limits on highway 60 and 87. Upon arriving on the scene the officials found one of the drivers intoxicated. He was charged with driving while intoxicated and his trial was held early last week.

No one was killed in the highway mishap although several persons were injured.

FARM HELP

President Truman has ordered Selective Service to grant more deferments of trained farm workers and directed the armed forces to stop trying to recruit men with such deferments, in order to meet the need for farm products, which is increasing daily, and which is threatened by a steady drain of workers. Farms have lost 6,000,000 workers in the last four years.

FEDERAL DEFICIT

The reason the Government closed its fiscal year with a deficit less than estimated by President Truman in January is that spending will total possibly $4,000,000,000 less than the $7,900,000,000 budgeted for the fiscal year. This spending cut resulted from a slowdown in outlays for rearming the nation and its friendly foreign allies.

U. S. lets $50,000,000 arms contracts in France.

THE AMERICAN WAY

But the aroma (?) lingers on

PARCEL POST

Postmaster General Donaldson has asked the Interstate Commerce Commission to grant another general advance in parcel post rates, because fourth class mail — or parcel post — is not paying its way, despite a general 25 per cent increase in rates granted by the commission last year, effective last October 1.

AIRPLANE PRODUCTION

The Defense Production Administration reports that military airplane production in May was up to schedule — 800 planes a month. Production of all types of military aircraft, including those for the Navy, was reported to be about 9,600 units a year. Output in the next few months, however, is expected to rise to 10,000 a year.

FARM POPULATION

The farm population of the United States has dropped by about 2,000,000 since 1940, while the non-farm group has increased by about 18,000,000.

In activity we must find our joy as well as glory; and labor, like everything else that is good, is its own reward. —E. P. Whipple.

NOT PRACTICAL

"Arithmetic is a science of truth," said the professor earnestly. "Figures can't lie. For instance if one man can build a house in 12 days, 12 men can build it in one."

"Yes," interrupted a quick-brained student. "Then 288 will build it in one hour, 17,280 in one minute, and 1,936,800 in one second. And I don't believe they could lay one brick in that time." While the professor was still gasping, the smart "ready reconquer" went on: "Again, if one ship can cross the Atlantic in six days, six ships can cross it in one day. I don't believe that either; so where's the truth in arithmetic?"

GET ON THE BALL

The amateur golfer sliced his drive and the ball came to rest on the top of a large ant hill. The duffer picked up another club and swung. The ball remained still, but the iron plowed into the ant hill, inflicting great casualties among the inhabitants.

With more confidence than skill, the golfer swung around again, leaving the ball unmoved but sending the rest of the ants to their celestial glory. That is, all except two, one of which turned to the other to say:

"You know, if we want to survive, we'd better get on the ball."

Alexander Wiley, U. S. Senator from Wisconsin: "We Americans can, and must, get rid of incompetents and security risks, the disloyal individuals in government—but we can do it in a traditional American way."

Three Burglary Cases Cleared by Arrest of Youth

At least three burglary cases were cleared up last week when a young man was taken in custody by Sheriff M. E. Cantrell. Two of the burglary cases concerned the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum and the other was the Buffalo Drug Store.

The museum had been entered at two different times. Once on the 2nd of July and again on July 6. Three guns that had been taken from the museum were recovered. One of the guns was a frontier type, single action 45 caliber Colt. Another was a luger while the third gun was something of a mystery even to authorities. It looked as if it was a size between a 38 and a 45 caliber and it had 380 stamped on the barrel. Officials at the Sheriff's office were in doubt about the kind and size of bullet the gun required.

Confession statements were made in the case of all three guns as well as in connection with the looting of the Buffalo Drug Store. Among the items taken from the drug store were several cartons of cigarettes and about a half-a-dozen boxes of shotgun shells.

Communist China definitely is hurt and hurt badly by loss of power from the bombed-out power plants that were serving a big chunk of Manchurian industry.

Alben Barkley, Vice President, will not back away if offered second place on a ticket that would be headed by Adlai Stevenson of Illinois.

President Truman will dedicate the keel of the "Nautilus," the first atomic-powered submarine, on June 14.

BOYCE HOUSE

I guess every home town editor—or for that matter anybody who gets around much over the State—has had pretty much the kind of experience as Editor H. B. Fox formerly of the Madisonville Meteor describes:

We know exactly how it is, remembering names, only with us, it's worse.

Many's the time a subscriber has come into this office to renew his paper and we couldn't call his name although he knew us and we should have known him.

"Want to renew my subscription again," the subscriber will say. "Ain't worth a dollar and a half but my wife likes to read it."

"Fine," we say, getting our receipt book out and feeling good. "Let's see, now," racking our brain trying to think of his name, "what are your initials?"

"J. M." he'll say, clipping it off short and not adding anything more.

Some folks, you know, will complete the sequence and mention their last name, too.

"Un, huh," we'll say. "Let's see, you live on Route 1?"

"Nope, live where I always have,

on Route 2."

"Let's see, you want to give a check?" we ask. We can read his signature in that case and come out all right.

"Nope, pay cash," he'll say.

By this time, we're out of devices and sweating good, and finally have to admit in the lamest sort of way, "We're sorry but we just can't remember your name." He tells us, sort of disgusted-like, and we say, "Oh, sure, of course," and write him a receipt.

SYMPATHETIC MOVIE-MAN

Trenton, N. J. — Brock Whitlock, general manager of an air-conditioned motion-picture theater, saw two ambulances drive off with persons suffering from the heat in his neighborhood and decided to do something about it. He went around the neighborhood with tickets, inviting people sitting out on their porches and in their back yards to come over to the theater. Around 700 accepted the invitation. The theater, which normally closed at 11 p. m., ran on until 3 a. m. for the comfort of the heat-worn spectators.

FIRECRACKER LIFTS TANK

Valley Stream, N. Y. — Two small boys, both 11, wanted to see how much noise a firecracker would make when exploded in an empty gasoline tank. They dropped the firecracker into a 1-ton, 2,000-gallon tank. The resulting explosion lifted the tank into the girders of the trestle under which it was stored and twisted around a steel beam. The boys were burned.

New Library Building on Campus of WT

West Texas State College's new $450,000 library building, ready for occupancy this week, fulfills a long-felt need for space and convenience. Moving of WT's thousands of books, periodicals, and government documents from the Administration Building to the new library has begun and will be completed during the summer. Lower left is Lamar's famed quotation inscribed above the entrance. At right, Miss Linnie Babston, acting librarian, places the first books in the new building's stacks.

The dream of the West Texas State College's life-time has been fulfilled with the completion of its new $450,000 library, a beautiful cream brick and white stone structure which encompasses space and convenience urgently needed here for years.

Moving of West Texas State's thousands of books, government documents, maps, and periodicals began this week from the Administration building, where, in crowded quarters on the second floor, the library has been housed since 1916. Long stored and inaccessible materials will now be available for immediate use by the college's undergraduate and graduate students. The move also creates more room in the Administration building for other departments.

Official dedication of the new library and the new physical education building is planned in October, when the Board of Regents meets on the campus, according to Dr. James P. Cornette, West Texas State president.

A companion building to West Texas State's Science Hall, constructed in 1943, the library completes the front-campus quadrangle before the Administration building. It is flanked by the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum. Across the front of the building are sections of voluted tan marble, and inscribed in the matching marble above the entrance is Mirabeau B. Lamar's famed quotation: "Cultiivated mind is the guardian genius of democracy, and while guided and controlled by virtue, the noblest attribute of man."

Brown, tan, and gray marble blends harmoniously inside, forming a corridor wainscoting and window sills. Floors are varicolored asphalt tile and specially treated and painted concrete, and doors, woodwork, and the modern circulation desk are of birch. The heating plant utilizes latest steam heating principles, and fluorescent lighting is through modern recessed fixtures.

Graduate students, with access to stack rooms, which have a capacity of 100,000 volumes, have been provided with 56 cubicles for private study among the four floors of stacks. Another convenient feature in the new building is the built-in card catalogue on the main floor.

In the basement the college film service will occupy several rooms for offices, storage, and a projection room for showing films. The heating plant is also located in the basement.

Macon O. Carder of Amarillo was architect and Neill Singleton of Amarillo was general contractor. Plans allowed for future addition of stack rooms as needed.

The main floor will contain the main reading or reference room, which will be air-conditioned and hold all reference books on new and strategically placed shelves around the walls and throughout the room, a conference room, librarian's office, document office, reference librarian's office, and a large ladies' lounge. The second floor includes a periodical room and office, music record room, exhibit room, rare book and Texas collection room. Also planned is a typing room for students and faculty, which will soon contain typewriters for rent. Trophy and exhibit cases are to be found on both floors.

Comfort will keynote the browsing room, with upholstered chairs and lounges, and fiction, biography, travel, and other volumes for leisure and reading.

West Texas State College's library now contains over 50,000 volumes, and has a current periodical list of about 500. Designated a depository, the library also has more than 300,000 government documents, and within the past few years has acquired about 50,000 maps, many of which were used in World War II.

The move is being conducted according to plans which will cause the least possible inconvenience to students and faculty during the summer term, and is expected to be completed, with the library ready for maximum use when the fall semester opens September 15.

Scouts of Troop 66 Prepare for Regional Meet

On Monday night of last week the Boy Scout Troop 66 met at the VFW site north of Canyon. The first 45 minutes were devoted to cutting some of the high weeds bordering the creek, but much work remains to be done before the area is clear of weeds. The main project for the meeting was the erection of a "monkey bridge" across the creek. A "monkey bridge" is a device that can be hastily built for the crossing of a canyon, creek or river.

Scouts and explorers present were: Jimmy Joyner, Charles Joyner, Raymond Haddock, Roy Hunter, Alan Hanks, Leonard Miller, Kenneth Camp, Richard Dodson, Jesse Ogle, Mac Boswell, Richard Fleming, Eugene Abbott, Gary Shepherd, and Tommy McBroom. Mike Hood and Charles Morris arrived from work in time to help bring the wedding to a close. Bill Hood and Ed Pettit directed the Scouts in their activity.

Scouts and explorers went to Camp Don Harrington Wednesday. They were practicing on competitive matches of swimming and racing to be conducted late in August. They plan to meet at the camp once or twice a week for such practice. Competitive events of racing and swimming will be featured in each age group of Scouts.

The Scout swimming pool is under the direction of Miss Joann Cooley, physical education instructor at West Texas State College. A swimming session was planned for scouts and explorers at Don Harrington for Wednesday evening, July 16. Instruction was set to begin at 7 o'clock and those who needed transportation were to meet at the First Christian Church at 6:30 o'clock in the evening.

The regular meeting night was reported as being Friday, July 18. Time of the meeting will be 7:30 o'clock and various scout activities will be observed.

All boys between the ages of 11 and 64 are invited to attend the group meetings. There is always room for new members, says the report, and the usual meeting time is 7:30 o'clock on Monday evening.

DEN 5 CUB SCOUTS MEET

Cub Scouts Den No. 5 met at the home of their den mother, Mrs. John Robinson, Monday, July 7 at 4 o'clock. From there Mrs. Ash Reece and Mrs. Platt took the Cubs for a short visit to the museum and the fire station.

After their tours they went to the home of Mrs. Reece and enjoyed refreshments of ice cream and cake.

Those present were Pat Watts, Bob Watts, Mark Mickey, Joe Carol Robinson, Joel Reece, Richard Green, Tommy Joe Platt, Bob Bellah, George Prichard, Dwayne Prichard and Dickie Campy.

Elizabeth Ann Erdman of Moberly, Mo., is visiting with her aunt, Loula Grace Erdman.

Mrs. Taylor Here For 63 Years

(By Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick)

Mrs. B. C. (Dolly) Taylor came to Canyon the earliest of any of the living pioneer women. She has been here 63 years, having come with her father, mother, two sisters and one brother when she was ten years old.

Her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Thompson, came from Anson, Texas, a small town in Jones County. They came in two covered wagons and drove about 50 head of cattle and horses with them. Two hired men came along to help with the stock. It took one month for them to make the trip. On the way all the party came down with measles. This slowed their progress. They were forced to make camp until all had recovered.

On arriving in Canyon Mr. Thompson purchased land from W. C. Williams on the Terra Blanca Creek about one mile south of town. There was a dugout on the place—a large dugout for those times. It had four windows and Mrs. Thompson hung curtains to divide it into four rooms. At the time they arrived here there were only two other families in Canyon, the L. G. Conners and the W. C. Williams, and two bachelors, H. H. Woods and W. F. Heller.

Truckers Headquarters

Truckers and freighters coming through would always try to make Terra Blanca for the night. In bad weather the Thompsons could not stand to have them out there so would invite them to spend the night with them. Sometimes there would be as many as a dozen people spending the night as guests in the Thompson's "four room" dugout.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Larson (Thompson, which is English for the Norwegian Larson) had come to Texas from Christina, Norway, and had adapted his name to the English version of Thompson. In 1859 he came and the next year sent for Mrs. Thompson and their two children.

Landed at Galveston

They, with her father, sailed directly to Galveston from Christina, Norway. Her father died just before they reached Galveston. As they were in sight of land the ship's captain allowed her to bring her father's body to shore for burial. Mr. Thompson, who at that time was a sailor, had sailed from New York City and his ship did not arrive in Galveston until one week after his family had arrived. Mrs. Thompson could not speak or understand a word of English!

There she was in a strange land with her two small children and her dead father's body, unable to understand or to make herself understood.

Mrs. Taylor says her mother always said she didn't know what she could have done if it had not been for one of her countrymen who was standing on the dock. Hearing her talk and understanding her plight he came to her aid, found lodging for her and helped to bury her father.

Mother Learned English

After this experience she quickly learned the English language and so anxious was she for her children to become Americans she never again allowed them to speak Norwegian language.

Mr. Thompson, not having had her experience as a goal, never learned the language so well as she. He brought with him his Norwegian Bible and continued to read it until his death. (Mrs. Taylor still has this Bible which today is over 100 years old).

He was a devout man and loved to pray. The people liked to hear him pray although most of them could not understand a word he said. They felt his prayers reached the heart of God. He continued to take his newspaper from Christina as long as he lived. Mrs. Thompson purchased an English Bible as soon as possible and made herself read it. It was in reading this Bible that she learned the English language.

Moved to Dallas

From Galveston the family moved to Dallas where they lived for five years. In 1879 in Parker County Mrs. Taylor, nee Dolly Thompson, was born and ten years later the family moved to Randall County.

They lived in a dugout south of town for three years. These early dugouts had dirt floors and the pioneer women didn't like that, but as all supplies had to be hauled across country by wagon from Dodge City, Kansas, and as food and clothing were more essential than lumber there was very little lumber brought. Mrs. Thompson made rugs out of gunny sacks. This helped some. They didn't like the dugouts either but soon found they were warm in the winter and cool in the summer.

Water from Spring

The Thompsons had a spring on their land about 150 yards from the house. All their water had to be carried from this spring. They would go to the spring to wash and as the town grew other women would bring their laundry to this spring, all coming on the same day to make a picnic of wash day. They hung their clothes on the bushes to dry.

In 1892 the Thompsons moved to town and built the house at 508 Fourth Avenue where Mrs. R. W. Foster now lives. Later they used this house for a hotel often feeding as many as 50 people at a meal and using only linen table cloths which Mrs. Thompson had brought with her from Norway. She she washed and ironed by hand.

Members of Local Church

The Thompsons were the first Methodists in Canyon. They organized the Methodist Church and Mrs. Taylor is the only living charter member of that church today. When she married B. C. Taylor in 1899, she joined the Baptist Church with him and is still an active member of that church.

For a long time the early settlers held Sunday School and church service in the court house. They did not have a regular preacher but two circuit preachers, Rev. Piney Atkinson and Preacher Rogers would come as often as they could. Preacher Rogers always ended every statement with "Bless the Lord." One time he said, in speaking of a strong wind, "Why it blew the roof right off the house—Bless the Lord."

A memorial window in the Methodist Church is dedicated to the memory and work of Mr. and Mrs. N. Thompson.

First School Held

The three early families of Canyon had only five children of school age. They used an office building for a school building and Miss Emma Turner was the first school teacher. She was a sister of John Turner.

There was only open prairie between Canyon and Amarillo, which was only a small place but all the people around drove there for their food. They would just drive over the prairie, fording the creek down by the old T Anchor ranch house. It took a full day to drive to Amarillo from Canyon. There was not a single house between Canyon and Amarillo.

Early Social Life

Mrs. Taylor says they had lots of parties in those days. They would sing, play dominoes, pull taffy. Most of the parties would be held in their home but after the court house was built parties were held there. On Saturday nights the cowboys from all the ranches around came to town. They would dance in the court house on Saturday night then have Sunday School and church there the next day, Sunday.

MRS. B. C. (DOLLY) TAYLOR

Indian Scare of 1891

The Indian scare of 1891 is a clear memory to Mrs. Taylor. She was then 12 years old. The driver of the stage line from Clarendon stopped and told her mother that Indians were headed for Canyon. The men started gathering together all the firearms they had and began barricading the court house. The women gathered up all of their effects they could carry. Mrs. Thompson even gathered all her soiled clothes.

One couple started to town with their several children, driving a mule team to a wagon. One child, a 2½ year old fell out of the wagon and in the excitement they did not miss him. Another family coming behind them saw him, picked him up and brought him to town. Another couple after they had started to town found the man had left his derby hat at home. The woman made him go back to get his hat. Derby hats in those days were prized possessions.

At last all of the families started for Amarillo. In the distance they saw the Indians come over the hill. Much to their relief they soon found that their Indians were cattle.

Explanation of Indian Raid

The explanation of the scare was that the Comanches had killed a beef near Clarendon and in so doing had caused the cattle to stampede. Word got out that the Comanches were on the warpath and were headed for Canyon. This is the "Indian Scare" referred to by all the pioneers and about which so many tales have been told. Mrs. Taylor is, as far as she knows, the only person in Canyon today who was here at the time of the Indian scare.

Coming of Santa Fe

The Santa Fe Railroad came to Canyon in 1898. This was a great event. A celebration was planned weeks in advance. A big barbecue was prepared and all the people came from miles around. This was the first time that many of them had ever seen a train. It had taken one year to build the railroad from Amarillo to Canyon. As the train came in the people shouted, jumped up and down and threw their hats into the air, acting much as such scenes are shown in the picture shows today.

Married to B. C. Taylor

In 1898 Dolly Thompson and B. C. Taylor were married. A wedding then as now was the highest type of social entertainment. Every neighbor within a radius of 20 miles was invited. Rev. W. H. Younger from Claude came to Canyon to perform the marriage ceremony. Rev. Younger was a brother of Mrs. L. G. Conner. Charley Thomas and Ora Gilmont were the best man and bridesmaid. The couple were married at the Thompson home and from there all the party went to the court house to church.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor moved immediately to their home west of Canyon. It was a two story house with the lower story a dugout and the upper story of frame. This house still stands. It has been added to and improved but portions of it are still the same.

Moved Here 49 Years Ago

Forty-nine years ago the Taylors moved to town and built the home at 1417 Second where Mrs. Taylor still lives. Four of their six children—four girls and two boys—were born in this house. Mrs. Taylor has eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Taylor believes the weather has moderated considerably. She says snow storms used to be terrible. One year the snow lasted from November until March. She remembers seeing hail stones as large as hen eggs.

Grasshopper Raids

One year the grasshoppers ate everything, leaving the ground as bare as a road. They ate the bark off the fence posts and holes in hoe handles.

In spite of everything she says the people had a good time. They enjoyed the close relationship, the warm friendliness of these early days. They were good days, she says. She would not go back or trade the present comforts for the past. After carrying water in a bucket 150 yards, she thinks running hot and cold water is the greatest physical comfort man can have.

Mrs. Taylor and her brother, A. C. Thompson of Hereford, are the sole survivors of their family. Their sister, Miss Tenie Thompson, was the last survivor of the parents.

Young for Her Years

Mrs. Taylor is young for her years. Tall, straight, with the blue eyes and clear skin of the Nordic people, she enjoys telling the tales of the pioneers but in no sense does she live in the past. She enjoys each day, taking a keen interest in her grandchildren and great-grandchildren and in the events of the day. Having seen so much development in her lifetime, she wonders what new things can be in store for the children of today.

Like her parents Mrs. Taylor has always read the Bible. She loves the 23rd Psalm and has taken it as her guide through life and knows it will always be her staff. She has enjoyed the past and with a firm faith looks to the future without fear.

25 States Now Pay Teachers More Than Texas

AUSTIN: Twenty-five states, including traditional competitors like California and Florida, now are paying their public school teachers more than Texas does, Charles H. Tennyson, executive secretary of the Texas State Teachers Association, announced today.

In Texas the average classroom teacher is paid $2,960 a year, whereas in New York she makes $4,500 a year. California, the number-two state in the nation, pays an average salary to teachers of $3,900.

Others that rate higher than Texas are Maryland, New Jersey, Delaware, Connecticut, Michigan, Washington, Arizona, Massachusetts, Oregon, Illinois, New Mexico, Indiana, Rhode Island, Nevada, Montana, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Wisconsin, Utah, Louisiana, Oklahoma, and Iowa.

Tennyson pointed out that teachers' salaries in Texas have not kept pace with the inflationary dollar. In 1939 teachers' salaries averaged $1,420 and the salaries of all employed persons, including laborers, was $1,269. Thus teachers were 12 percent above the average. Since then the national average for all workers has climbed to $3,390 a year—$430 more than the average teachers get—leaving them 12 percent behind the national group.

This trend is making it increasingly difficult to retain good teachers and to recruit new ones, Tennyson added. College graduates trained to teach are turning to industry where salaries and wages match their professional knowledge.

In an effort to equalize present conditions, the Texas State Teachers Association will ask the next legislature to increase the minimum beginning salary for public school teachers to $3,000 a year. The legal minimum now for teachers is $2,403 a year.

Drivers Rated by Accident Toll as Good or Bad Risk

An insurance company has compiled a report of drivers based on an occupational analysis and the report has been reproduced and distributed by the safety division of the Highway Patrol. The comprehensive report includes 63 occupations and the unemployed group. The unemployed group is listed as the biggest risk of insurance loss ratio.

Farm extension workers, bankers and aviators head the list of safe drivers, while the unemployed, amusement workers and traveling salesmen bring up the rear. Housewives rank better than average on the list of insurance risk.

Farmers live up to their reputation as first class automobile risks, holding fifth place but farm laborers fall into the 53rd position which is near the bottom. Clerical workers are up near the top of the list in 9th place. They are followed by barbers and beauty shop operators.

The report shows that teachers and engineers are the best risks among the professional group. The medical group is listed as being about average while the funeral directors are slightly higher on the list.

The trades group as a whole shows an average insurance risk. Garment and millinery workers are placed in the 54th slot of the list of 64 places. Military enlisted personnel rank 61st with a very high accident frequency.

Coackroaches May Be Killed With a Well Known Spray

A dime store paint brush and a few ounces of chlordane are the only tools you need to run off those pesky coackroaches, State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox advises.

But he says keeping them off is a bigger job.

Roaches are disease carriers from way back, the health officer pointed out. They've been found naturally infected with polio virus. And that alone, is reason enough to declare war against the filth ridden pests. Here's the way to do it:

First: get a 2 per cent chlordane spray and a two-bit paint brush from the drug store. Then take all the pots, pans, and dishes from the kitchen cabinet and wash them in soapy water.

Now paint the chlordane into all the cracks where shelves join walls and around the drain and water pipes. That's all—don't paint the whole cabinet. While the spray is drying in the cabinets, paint in the corners of baseboards, behind the stove and the hot water heater where water and gas pipes enter the house.

Take off the motor panel of the refrigerator, and treat the floor and corners of the motor compartment. Paint the walls behind the refrigerator, because roaches will hide any place they can find protection. Be sure to paint around bathroom pipes, too.

In older houses it's possible that roaches will be hiding in cracks between the wall boards and door and window frames. So don't pass up a crack because it looks too small to harbor roaches. The young insects are mighty small.

After the spray in the cabinets has dried thoroughly, cover the shelves where dishes and food are stored with paper.

You can get a can of caulking compound for just a few cents, which makes filling cracks permanently an inexpensive process. But run some of the spray into cracks before sealing them up. This will kill ants, too.

All this will help you get rid of roaches, Dr. Cox emphasizes. But if you leave food exposed, they'll soon be back at the same old stand.

There is a tree in South America called the rain tree, so named because the ejection of juice by cicadas upon it causes it to appear to be always raining under its branches.

In 1912, when Theodore Roosevelt was shot by John Schrank, a spectacle case deflected the assassin's bullet and saved the President's life.

President Tyler saw himself burned in effigy before the White House.

Boy Scouts Slate Two July Sessions

Local Boy Scouts have had a full summer of activities, Stuart Condon reported late last week. Stuart Condon is the Scoutmaster and the Assistant Scoutmaster is Edd Pettitt. Both have been working diligently to make the recently revived troop an organization of which the boys can truly be proud.

Several kinds of sports have been enjoyed this summer with swimming being the most popular. Even in the midst of recreation, summer vacation and games, the Scouts have continued to conduct their affairs in a business-like manner.

More business is coming up in the future and this business is in the form of a Board of Review and a Court of Honor. The Board of Review meeting is set for Friday, July 18. The Court of Honor will be conducted on Monday, July 28. Court of Honor is the most important activity in which Boy Scouts participate.

WARREN'S

A good many Democrats are confused this year.

That may be nothing new for the Democrats — or for the Republicans either.

I think it is safe to say that a good many of the people are fooled a good deal of the time, with respect to politics.

Although this is a Democracy in which we live, and it is thus our responsibility to know how our government works, a lot of us have been remiss along that line.

This year — right now — a good many Democrats are confused because they are determined to vote for the Republican nominee for president.

They are asking themselves whether, in the light of that intention, they should attend the Democratic precinct convention on July 26.

I inquired of some authorities relative to this point. Here are the answers, as best I can present them.

In the first place, the forthcoming series of conventions are the "state" series. The "national" series, leading to the national convention at Chicago, are over. Thus the business before the next series pertains to Texas only and will have to do with who is going to control the party machinery for the next two years.

Another point is that, in the opinion of longtime political observers here, Texas officials are going to be elected by the Democrats for a long time to come.

Thus it is that if a citizen wants to have part in the choosing of his local and state officials, he will have to participate in the Democratic primaries.

There is nothing in the law, or anywhere else to keep a citizen from voting in the Democratic primaries, and then voting for the Republican presidential nominee, if he so desires.

On the July primary ballot there will appear a party pledge, binding the voter to support the nominees "of this primary." That pledge is not binding so far as the presidential nominee is concerned, for he is chosen at a party convention, not in the primary election.

Strictly speaking, the voter does not have a chance to voice a presidential preference prior to the general election. And it is my belief that the voter is neither legally nor morally bound to vote for the Democratic presidential nominee at that time.

In the past, most Texans have usually voted the Democratic ticket straight, both in the primaries and in the general election.

There has been a sort of stigma attached to party bolting.

I think we are going to see in Texas a trend toward independence insofar as the general election is concerned.

Another Stampede Coming

What I am stating here is a matter of personal opinion, based on observation of the current situation and on the viewpoints of capable political observers with whom I have recently conversed.

As General Eisenhower has been nominated by the G. O. P., I think it is perfectly safe to predict that a great number of Texans are going to vote for him.

I would like to conclude by saying that those Texans can feel, in my opinion, that they are legally and morally free to take part in the Democratic conventions and in the Democratic primaries on July 26.

My idea is that we should take care of Texas' problems, with respect to politics, in July and August. We can then vote our convictions with respect to the presidency — Republican or Democratic — in November.

T. H. (Tommy) Lair Asks Re-election As County Clerk

TO THE VOTERS OF RANDALL COUNTY:

I appreciate this opportunity to ask the people for whom I work to investigate the record which I have made in public office. If they find that I have been honest, and have merited their support for another term, I shall appreciate it very much if you will re-elect me as your County Clerk for the coming term.

I have confined my active campaign for re-election to my own time, which has not permitted me to canvass the entire county. However, I am making every effort to see as many voters as possible, and I take this means of asking all voters of Randall County to consider my record and my candidacy when they go to the polls on July 26.

I thank you for past favors, and hope that you will re-elect me in order that I may continue to give you good service in public office as your County Clerk.

Value Night Is A Popular One To Movie Fans

As a general rule the entertainment business at the movie theater holds a steady course, reported Charlie Donnell late last week. He added that there had been some thought given to conducting a matinee for the Dollar Day crowds. This was given up when it appeared that most of the Dollar Day shoppers were rushed for time and came to town only to enjoy the values, get what they need and return home.

The shot-in-the-arm to the movie business here has been the Tuesday 51 cent night. On this night a couple can see the show for the price of one ticket plus 1 cent. This reduced rate has caused the Tuesday night movie to be a very popular one with the public.

Donnell said that although it was impossible to get the best shows all the time an effort is made to get the shows the people seem to want most.

The local theater has been offering the public this savings for about one year. Main purpose for conducting such an event at the theater is to give people something different. Breaking the monotony at a saving to the public has been a popular move in getting more people to come to see the show on Tuesday night. Donnell explained that it was sort of a weekly value day for the business.

Cub Scouts Plan Picnic in August

Approximately 50 members of Cub Scout Pack 31 are planning a picnic in August. Location of the picnic has not been determined and neither has a definite date been decided upon.

Each summer the Cub Scouts enjoy a variety of activities. Before those activities are confined to the inside of a building for the new school term and winter time, a picnic is enjoyed to climax the summer session.

During the summer the various dens in the pack compete with each other for supremacy. The major portion of the competition will be put aside and the entire pack will enjoy the picnic. This is the big activity of the summer time and it is planned as a special treat for the entire pack.

Drivers Should Be More Careful On Open Road

(Note: No. 2 in a special series of three safety articles for The News.)

Your life is a fragile thing when you're on the busy highway of today. Just one careless move on the part of an unthinking driver and there is a serious accident which can result in death and destruction. This is the condition that many traffic officers are combating today. It's an uphill fight all the way because of careless, thoughtless drivers.

The hazards multiply at night on the curving, three-lane highway between here and Amarillo. When meeting a string of traffic on this road at night it's difficult to tell when a car is out in the middle lane. This is because often you can see only one headlight of the rear cars in a long string of traffic. Often you will think that two lights are coming at you from the middle lane when in reality it's two cars over in the correct lane. The danger of this lies in the fact that you're apt to build up a great confidence about judging when a car is in the middle lane. Then some night when you're tired and in a hurry you pull out into the middle lane to pass someone and find that the lights meeting you aren't two cars in their correct lane but one car in the middle lane and there's a serious accident.

Recently a county law enforcement official pointed out that the bulk of the highway accidents are caused by ordinary citizens who get careless. Every serious crash that is closely investigated is almost invariably found to be the result of careless frustration on the part of one of the drivers.

In observing traffic from a critical standpoint you get the idea that most drivers cannot think accurately in comparison with the speed of the car that is being driven. This shows up when one car is passing another in a three lane highway. Although the road may be clear for at least one mile ahead, this does not indicate that the motorist has sufficient time to get around the car.

With the high speed cars that are being driven today 60 miles per hour is not considered overly fast. This is a rate of speed of one mile per minute and if another car is approaching at that same speed it only requires 30 seconds for the two cars to meet from a distance of one mile. When looked at in this light it is possible to see the danger of pulling out into the middle lane of a three lane highway to pass a car when you see another car in that lane even though it may be a great distance away.

The driver who roars out into the middle lane on a three lane highway when another car is a mile or so in front of him is gambling with high stakes. Literally he is gambling his life for a small amount of time that can be measured in seconds. The chances for such an accident are multiplied by the fact that in looking at a car coming straight at you, you cannot accurately judge the speed at which that vehicle is traveling.

Correct timing is important to the drivers. When passing another vehicle there should be plenty of time to get around that vehicle and into the correct lane. Cool-headed, careful driving may be termed a sort of life insurance because most people only experience one head-on collision.

WT-CC Officials To Meet Here

Officials of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be in Canyon Wednesday, July 16. The meeting will start off at 10 o'clock in the morning at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum. Following the meeting a Dutch lunch will be enjoyed at the college cafeteria. The meeting will concern tourist development and following the luncheon in the college cafeteria the group will go on a tour through Palo Duro Canyon. The number of people to attend this meeting is expected to be between 40 and 50.

Out-of-town guests will consist of Chamber of Commerce managers and presidents, West Texas Chamber of Commerce Directors. Most of these directors will be from the northern part of the Panhandle area. There will be a few directors in attendance from the south side of the Caprock.

Sen. Hazlewood Pinch Hit When Shivers Failed

SENATOR HAZLEWOOD

Because of a mixup in the schedule of Governor Shivers, made in his office at Austin, the Governor failed to make his luncheon appointment in Canyon Thursday.

Senator Grady Hazlewood accepted the invitation to speak before a joint meeting of the Rotary and Lions Clubs. He discussed legislative problems in a most interesting manner.

With the re-districting of the State, East Texas lost four seats in the Senate, explained the Senator. In years past East Texas has been using the tax funds of the State for the interest of their own people. The scholastic per capita unequal distribution is an example of what was happening when Senator Hazlewood went to the Senate.

In 1945, the college at Commerce with fewer students than West Texas State, was receiving $500,000 more money in appropriation. Because of his work in the Finance Committee, this situation has been changed.

During the last session of the legislature Senator Hazlewood sent up an amendment to the appropriations bill which gave West Texas State $170,000 more money. This was the only amendment adopted in the Senate.

Senator Hazlewood scored citizens who stayed at home on election day and took no interest in their government. No wonder the minority politicians are taking charge of the government, such as the Trumans and the Tafts, both of whom represent minority groups.

When the Senator proposed an appropriation to pay off the debt against Palo Duro State Park there was only five Senators of the 21 member committee left to hear the proposal. The rest had walked out and the bill was dead.

"Not all the poor legislation is centered in Washington. We have plenty of such legislation in Austin," stated the Senator. Members of the Senate cannot keep up with all of the stuff which is proposed, and no one expects the citizens to know what is going on. He cited bills which had been killed during his time in Austin because of the alertness of the legislature.

Riders on the appropriation bill were described as foolish legislation, which the sponsors cannot secure by direct law. The Board of Control has assumed a lot of power which is against the good of the institutions of the state.

They are getting by with "murder" down at Austin because the people of the state so little realize what is going on.

Both Boone McClure, president of the Rotary Club, and Dutch Cleavinger, president of the Lions Club, were absent. Bud Parker presided at the joint meeting of the two clubs. A number of local guests were present.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT OF TEXAS FROM YOUR CONGRESSMAN Walter Rogers

Why I Voted Against The Adjournment

When Congress adjourned, the adjournment was sine die. This is a Latin phrase the literal translation of which is "without day." In other words, insofar as the Congress is concerned the adjournment is final and conclusive.

Whether or not Congress reconvenes this year is a decision that is in the power of one man — the President of the United States. Had the Congress recessed, it could have set a day for return or could have been called back by the leaders of the House and the Senate.

Had there been no important matters for consideration, the recess could have been continued. I voted against the sine die resolution along with a small handful of members, mostly from the South. I did this for a number of reasons, but the three most important are as follows:

(1) In view of the present world situation, I do not believe that the decision to reconvene or not to reconvene the Congress should be left in the hands of one man. Past experience has proven that a one-man snap judgment decision is sometimes prompted by emotion rather than this power should be in the hands of one man during these troublesome times;

(2) We are at war regardless of what name is applied to the Korean conflict. The smoldering fires of hate that now engulf the world could easily flare into flames and require fast and immediate action by the Congress. Even a temporary delay in reconvention of Congress could be very costly to the United States;

(3) There are many legislative matters that died for want of action. Many of these should be acted upon this year, especially the several proposals to cut income taxes so that the small income people could get some relief.

I had hoped that we could get some action on the bill that I introduced to bring about this result. It would have helped the small income families especially.

Several members introduced similar bills, and if we had the time to get one of these bills to the floor, I am confident we could pass it.

Another most important piece of legislation is the Tidelands bill that the President vetoed. Unless Congress is called back, this bill will die in the Senate. Therefore the adjournment sine die left the present state of the Tidelands bill in the hands of one man who vetoed it.

If Congress had recessed, rather than adjourned, we would have had a good chance for the Senate to override the veto this year. The last report is that the proponents of the bill only lacked two votes having enough to override the veto in the Senate. It can easily be overridden in the House.

If the President fails to call the Congress back, it will mean that the battle for the tidelands must begin anew in 1953. It is a definite certainty that the battle will begin and will not be relaxed until these lands are returned to the states. We shall never give up.

Governor Shivers Made a Delayed Visit on Thursday

GOVERNOR ALLAN SHIVERS

Governor Allan Shivers was delayed in his visit to Canyon Thursday afternoon, not arriving here until 4:30 o'clock. The Governor had been met in Lubbock by two Amarillo citizens, Frank Storm, Jr., and C. T. Davis.

The party stopped for a few minutes at The News office where an informal reception was held during the stay of Governor Shivers.

"Please tell the people of Canyon that I regret very much the mix-up in dates which made it impossible for me to meet the large group of citizens who had assembled at the joint meeting of the Rotary and Lions Clubs for the weekly luncheon. I am very grateful to Senator Grady Hazlewood for coming to my rescue and making such a fine speech, as has been reported to me," stated the Governor.

While here Governor Shivers called Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State, and other friends.

A number of Canyon people attended the reception which was held at the Crystal Ballroom of the Herring Hotel in Amarillo Thursday night in honor of Governor Shivers. While in Amarillo he spoke over the radio for 15 minutes at 7 o'clock.

Governor Shivers was assured by delegations from all over the Panhandle that he would be re-elected as Governor of Texas without opposition in the primary election of July 26.

Governor Shivers owns two country weekly newspapers, and expressed amazement at the completeness of The News plant. He spent most of his time here in discussing newspaper problems.

Joe Bailey To Take Position on WT Faculty in Sept.

Joe A. Bailey, former Amarillo teacher, has been appointed assistant coordinator of public services at West Texas State College, President James P. Cornette has announced.

Bailey, who taught speech and English for two years at Horace Mann Junior High School in Amarillo, will have charge of the college placement service and will teach in the speech department.

A graduate of Amarillo High School and Amarillo College, Bailey earned his B.S. in speech and education in 1950 and his M.A. in speech at West Texas State. He is the author of several magazine and trade journal articles and wrote features for the Amarillo Daily News and Globe. He is a second lieutenant in the 142nd Infantry Regiment, National Guard.

To the Democratic party goes the distinction of having written the shortest platform of the two major parties, that written in 1860, which consisted of only 350 words.

A banquet was held in January 1835, during Andrew Jackson's administration, to celebrate the fact that the country was almost free of debt.

States warned on growing illiteracy of migrant children.

Canyonites' Leading Fire Prevention Posters on Display

An exhibit of prize winning posters sponsored by the fire prevention section of the State Fire Insurance Commission throughout Texas' schools is being shown this week at West Texas State College.

Among the posters displayed in the WT Administration Building corridor are two state winners' posters from Canyon, a sixth place poster in the senior high school division by Bob Ratliff, and a second place winner in the junior high school division by La Nelle Gum.

The posters are being shown in state colleges, with half the exhibit being shown in East Texas, and the other half in West Texas. The display will be up all week, and Mrs. Vallie L. Bock of Austin, school supervisor for the commission, will be on hand for explanations.

Farm Worker Won't Accept Higher Wages

ROCK GAP, W. Va.—Joe Miller will accept no higher wages than one dollar a day. He believes "a man isn't worth more than that."

Joe has worked on farms in Maryland, West Virginia and Virginia as butcher, blacksmith, veterinarian, machinist, farmer, carpenter for a dollar per day plus meals.

His services are in demand—not because of the low wages but because of his skill.

Is he carrying on a one man battle against inflation? No. He's fighting to keep his integrity. He thinks $1 per day is all he's worth.

"Most people have only one job and that's all they do or can do. Left to themselves most would starve to death," he says.

He builds barns and houses, operates and repairs threshing machines, tractors and wagons, sharpens saws and scythes, treats sick cows, horses, hogs and chickens, shears sheep, tans and cures hides and blacksmiths.

He adds to these earning skills by shooting hawks for the bounty and raising a garden and chickens. "And remember," he explains, "I seldom eat at home."

Miller lives in a ramshackle four room house far out in the country. He helped build the place 40 years ago.

Most people work just to make money and more money," says the Morgan county bachelor.

"Then they take the money and use it to clutter up their lives with pleasure stuff. They buy and buy; prices rise higher and higher; and nobody enjoys one-tenth of what he has.

"A man ought to work first for pleasure and pride in a job well done—not just for money, money, money."

"Living is a matter of government. And good government begins with self-government. If men would try to govern themselves, the country would be on its feet in right smart time," Miller says.

Farmers hire the versatile farm hand as much as six months in advance. And though he does not record the dates, he never forgets a promised day's work.

"There's nothing marvelous about it," Miller says. "I don't clutter up my mind with worry and wants and such junk."

He does make a concession for married men.

"He'll need more than a dollar per day. I'd say another 50c a day for his wife and for every child under 12. Though that may be a bit high. Because, remember, a man can also sell timber, honey, milk, chickens and eggs to make money—if he needs it."

Son Follows Directions And Is Saved by Mother

PITTSBURGH—George Eckert, two, and father, James, were walking their dog near their home. The boy vanished.

"I looked through the brush and weeds and saw a hole," the father said. "I couldn't see George but I could hear him calling me. I yelled for help."

The hole was an 18 inch wide, 25 foot deep abandoned gas well shaft. The boy's mother responded, learned what had happened and ran back home for her clothes line.

The parents couldn't pull George out. When they got him up a few feet the rope would slip from the boy's tiny hands. The father made a noose. Mrs. Eckert lowered it down the hole, talking softly to George:

"Put it over your head, darling. Drop it under your arms. Now hold up your arms."

A moment later, George called up:

"Okay, mommy. I'm all ready. Pull me up."

And up he came.

Trans-Continental Trip Costs Scots Only $20

FRESNO—Two Scottish teachers discovered they could travel across the U.S. for less than $20.

The two instructors, Robert Donald and John Cross of Motherwell, Scotland, came here to study American physical education methods. British currency regulations limited the amount of money to be taken from the country to $28 each for the travelers.

After crossing the Atlantic, with their fare paid in advance, the visitors hitch-hiked 4,413 miles from New York to Fresno, Calif., including several side trips, for a total expense of $19.50.

BENTON, Ill.—The council chamber's acoustics were so poor that spectators couldn't hear what was being discussed. It was a poor show. There were so many empty seats that the council operated almost in privacy.

General Ike Is GOP Nominee in Hot Convention

General Eisenhower was elected to head the GOP political campaign in November. Senator Nixon of California is his running mate.

The break came on the first ballot after the Taft campaign folded under the weight of the mistakes which it had been making.

The Democratic National Convention gets under way next Monday with a dozen potential candidates.

A very thoughtful article on the campaign is published in this issue of The Canyon News from Austin. Democrats can vote for Ike, with no moral or legal restrictions, according to this authority.

JUDGE JOE S. MOSS

THE LAW CAN BE IN SIMPLE LANGUAGE

Any document signed by a Randall county citizen may someday have to be interpreted by the Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo. In over 41 years the court has existed, it has decided over six thousand civil cases. It is to the interest of the people of Randall county that qualified men of the people sit on that high court. Judge Joe S. Moss of Garza county believes that legal papers and proceedings should be in the language of the people, rather than in legal fine print. Judge Moss will help simplify and speed up the machinery of the law. Ask the people who know him. Vote for Moss. A Civil Judge for a Civil Court.

(Pol. Adv. Paid by Joe S. Moss)

Rain, which may be prosaic some places, is always an adventure in the great Southwest.

Although people in damper climates may find rainy weather depressing, the atmosphere in almost any southwestern home brightens at the mere promise of a cloud in the sky. Mama likes it because it "settles the dust" and "cools things off." Dad is joyful because it's "good for the crops" and good crops mean good business.

Rain is the western child's first lesson in objectivity. Few children past the age of six even complain at having a picnic rained out, because they've heard so often "it's good for the country." Add to that the novelty of wading in the streets and sailing blocks of wood along the gutters and they can hardly lose.

We went to a coffee the other morning in the rain. Evidently no one would believe a shower could last more than fifteen minutes, so some came late and others were completely unprepared for wet weather. Only about one-fourth of the women present even owned an umbrella. One brought a small hand-painted parasol used as a plaything by her seven-year-old daughter. Five or six more had raincoats. The rest had to be shuttled to their cars in borrowed protectors.

Out here "wet years" are historic landmarks. One woman told of moving to our town in 1925, one of our few wet years. She'd heard all sorts of tales about the dry, barren Southwest, but when she arrived, people were literally rowing up ma in street in boats. Another, who came west in 1941, said every time a cloud appeared she ran and put the windows down, expecting a sandstorm. Actually, she didn't see sand for several months.

Yes, there may be many more exciting things to see and hear than rain falling on dusty plants, but for our money it's one of the most comforting sights and sounds in the world.

Varied Reports Are Given on July Dollar Day

Dollar Day reports are varied on customer buying Friday. Reports show business fluctuating from fair to excellent. There was some skepticism about how this particular Dollar Day would turn out because it had been postponed. The usual Dollar Day would have fallen on the 4th of July and because many merchants were closed that day, the value day was put off until the following Friday.

Probably one of the biggest factors in making this particular Dollar Day a success was the recent end to the wheat harvest. The major portion of the harvest was reported to have ended about the middle of the week. This gave many of the people an opportunity to rest a day and then come to town for Dollar Day values.

The postponement of Dollar Day in July to the 11th gave the public exactly three weeks between the big value days in Canyon. The next Dollar Day will be the first day of August. This may cause the public to think that Dollar Days are coming more rapidly than usual.

Ethel Mullins Is Candidate District Clerk

ETHEL MULLINS

Ethel Mullins is a candidate for a second term as District Clerk of Randall County.

She makes the following statement regarding the office:

"In voting for a candidate for any kind of political jobs—to be entrusted with the business of handling our taxes and whose duty it is to be conservative with operating expenses in such political jobs, we owe it to our selves to be as careful in selecting these people as we would be in hiring them for any specialized position.

"A look at our immediate state of affairs of the Nation as a whole — would bear out the need of trained and experienced political officials. Waste in government is one of the outstanding factors that makes our taxes high. So why not try to cut those taxes by having people in office who are capable of the disbursing of waste.

"I have been your District Clerk for a little over 18 months now and I have collected every bill that has been entered on the books since I became District Clerk, and have collected many old bills. I have a score of books to be kept up in this office and all are posted and up to date.

"I have shown no favoritism to anyone but have treated everyone with the same equal amount of courtesy that each and all deserve.

"I have tried in every way to avoid any unnecessary expense being added to the tax payers and voters—and have done so in many instances.

"Therefore, as a qualified business woman and office executive, of over 20 years experience, I am asking for, and WILL APPRECIATE WITH WHOLEHEARTED GRATITUDE, YOUR SUPPORT IN RE-ELECTING ME FOR A SECOND TERM. Sincerely yours,

ETHEL MULLINS, District Clerk

Just Between You, Me and ... the Gatepost

You're reading words written by the hand that shook the hand of the Governor. The Governor stopped over while campaigning for re-election to the office he holds as chief executive of the state. His easy manner of meeting people and nonchalant greetings almost caused some of the fellows (including me) to drop their uppers.

If you haven't noticed the new library building down at the college recently you should do so very soon. It's emerging like a beautiful butterfly from a cocoon. All the debris from around the building has been cleared away and the building and grounds are taking on a new look of grandeur.

While on the subject of college we might as well tell about the embarrassing situation of last week. It involves a Spanish class and our instructor, Dr. Ples Harper. On Tuesday morning of last week we found ourself a little incapacitated and stayed home from class. Tuesday being a busy day at the paper we sort of struggled down late that afternoon to do all the work we could. Who should drop in but Dr. Harper. We were caught with our excuses down but good.

Last week was the end of our Spanish class and it was very pleasant, thanks to Miss Charlton and Dr. Ples Harper. There were also three charming female members of the class who were greatly responsible for the pleasant classroom atmosphere. These three young women were Annell Clay, Earlena Phillips and Eileen Bynum.

It seems very early to talk about it at this time but detailed plans are being laid for the Amarillo Tri-State Fair. John Brazzil, Randall County's Agricultural Agent, spent several hours Wednesday at Amarillo working out plans for the fair. When you stop to think about it there are only about ten weeks until the fair opens. Time marches on.

Now is the time for all people who want to boost Canyon to come to the aid of a wonderful development for our locality. Charlie Donnell and W. J. Wooten need a name for the new drive-in theater. They want something original and something that will express a thought for the good of the community. So, put on your thinking cap and come up with something original and when you see Mr. Wooten or Charlie Donnell downtown suggest your choice name for the new drive-in theater. By the way, that theater may be in operation by the latter part of August, reports Charlie Donnell.

The Chamber of Commerce is getting back on the ball with Glenn Waggoner at the helm. The 'Chamber Chatter,' a large page of news about the activities of the chamber is being printed and mailed out again. It's nice for the public to know what the Chamber of Commerce is doing. The activities of the chamber form a main spring of the town in which it is operating.

We see that the local Red Cross workers are trying to get enough people to pledge blood to get the Blood Mobile to stop in Canyon. This appears to be a good idea because blood plasma in Korea means more lives of United Nations' soldiers saved. So, if you want to do a good deed drop by the Chamber of Commerce office or the City Hall and sign up to give a blood donation when the blood mobile unit is in this area.

Here's that department again. Remember those chirps of wisdom we used to run? Well, we sort of got side tracked but we're back on them again and this time we hope to stay. To start off with here's chirp number one. Thinking costs nothing so why not help yourself?

Life is a one way street, you're not coming back. The secret of getting better wages is to do better work. The best way to tell a woman's age is in a whisper, a very low whisper too.

The orthopedic surgeon on the Florida beach remarked to his friend, who was a lung specialist, that the girls on the beach had exceptionally beautiful legs.

The lung specialist excitedly said, "Hadn't noticed, you see, I'm a chest man."

Then there's the joke about the voter that seems appropriate at this time.

It seems that the voter didn't approve of the candidate who was in his presence. He glowered as he said, "Why I wouldn't vote for you if you were St. Peter."

The candidate glowered right back and said, "If I was St. Peter you wouldn't be in my precinct."

Pledges Needed To Bring Mobile Blood Unit Here

Local officials are working to get a Red Cross Mobile Unit here to take blood donations for United Nations soldiers in Korea. The unit for taking such blood donations is to be in the vicinity during the last days of August. In order to get the unit to stop in Canyon there must be at least 300 people sign a pledge to give a blood donation.

If 300 people sign the pledge to give a blood donation the blood mobile unit will stop here as long as one day. Anyone interested in helping the blood drive can do so by signing a pledge. These pledges can be signed at either of two locations. One sheet for pledges is located in the City Hall while the other can be found at the Chamber of Commerce office.

The local Red Cross and its workers are making every effort to obtain the necessary number of pledges to get the Blood Mobile to stop here. The workers feel that this very worthy cause should bring a greater number than the required 300 pledges. They base this belief upon the fact that the blood plasma is the difference between life and death for many of the wounded soldiers in Korea.

Shivers Urges Voters Attend Precinct Meet

In years past only a few person have taken out to attend the precinct convention of the Democratic party on the afternoon of the July primary election. This year should be different.

Governor Allan Shivers while here Thursday urged that all Democrats attend the Precinct Convention and to make sure that delegates who are qualified Democrats be elected to the County Convention which will be held on Saturday, August 2.

Since the State Convention of the Democratic party will be held in Amarillo on Sept. 9, a full delegation of Randall County Democrats will be elected to attend this convention.

"It is very important that all Democrats continue the fight against corruption in government, and to plan for the election of the Democratic nominees for President and Vice President in November. We can win the election in November with the right kind of leadership and intelligent followers in the Democratic party," stated Governor Shivers.

PROGRESS

Once men spent time in caves; now they spend it in subways. That's what historians call progress.

John Dunlap, Commissioner, Internal Revenue Bureau: "Many gamblers are perfectly honest as far as income taxes are concerned."

W. Averell Harriman, Director, Mutual Security: "Any one who says that we can cut taxes and keep our security is dishonest."

E. H. Flath, engineering professor, speaking of job prospects for '52 graduates: "If an engineering grad is breathing, he has a job."
